INDIANA UTILITY
REGULATORY COMMISSION

You are hereby notified that on this date the Indiana Utility Regulatory Commission has caused the following entry to be made:

On April 13, 2004, Petitioners T-NETIX, Inc. and T-NETIX Telecommunications Services, Inc. filed with the Commission their "Motion to Set Procedural Schedule," which appears in the following words and figures, to-wit:

[H.I.]

On April 14, 2004, the Office of Utility Consumer Counselor filed with the Commission its "Notice of Intent Not to Prefile Testimony," which appears in the following words and figures, to-wit:

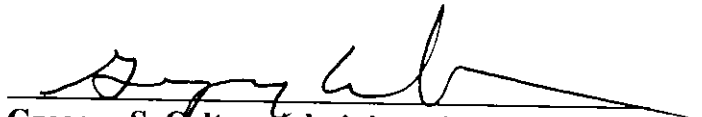

[H.I.]

Upon reviewing the two pleadings, the presiding officer now determines that an evidentiary hearing should be convened on May 19, 2004, beginning at 10:30 a.m. in Room E-306 Law Library, Indiana Government Center South, Indianapolis, Indiana. The presiding officer requests that Petitioner come to the hearing prepared to answer the following Bench questions:

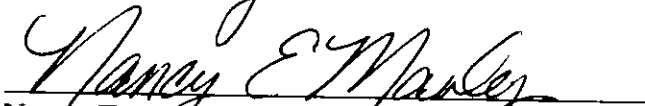

After the proposed transfer of control occurs:

- Which companies survive?
- Which company(s) will be operating in Indiana?
- Will the CTAs stay with the company to which they were originally issued?
- Will the company(s) providing service to Indiana customers be authorized, have the applicable CTA authority, be registered with the Indiana Secretary of State, etc.?
- What d/b/a will be used and by whom (in Indiana)?

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Gregory S. Colton, Administrative Law Judge

Dated: May 5, 2004

Nancy E. Manley, Secretary to the Commission
